

An award-winning EL Education School in Washington, DC

High School Spanish Teacher 2019-2020

Capital City is looking for dedicated and talented Spanish teacher for our High school program for the 2019-2020 school year. Experience with/aspirations to teach AP Spanish is desired.

This is a 10-month position, which is exempt and therefore not eligible for overtime pay under the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The many and varied responsibilities include:

- Planning and teaching daily classes for groups of 12-15 students
- Utilizing a workshop model to differentiate instruction and promote student engagement
- Developing meaningful learning expeditions and projects
- Designing curriculum maps to sequence the teaching of content
- Regularly assessing student progress and using data to plan for instruction
- Meeting and planning at least weekly with a teaching team
- Working to plan for and support students with special needs
- Developing a strong classroom culture through the Responsive Classroom® model
- Communicating regularly with families
- Involving students in fieldwork and service that deepens understanding and interest
- Attending a summer institute and weekly professional development sessions
- Completing narrative progress reports

At least two of the following are required: Bachelor's degree and at least one of the following:

- A major in education or field of instruction or equivalent 30 semester hours of credit
- District of Columbia teaching license in field of instruction
- Two years of verifiable teaching experience as a teacher of record
- One year as a support teacher at Capital City and enrollment in a teacher education or certification program.

While the above are the minimum qualifications, Capital City seeks to employ experienced, credentialed teachers. Ideal candidates have a Master's degree and 3+ years of full-time teaching experience. In addition to the above requirements, teachers must meet the requirements of all hires at Capital City including a criminal background check, and a negative TB test.

Compensation and Benefits: Capital City offers a competitive salary commensurate with experience and a comprehensive benefits package

To Apply: Email your resume and letter of interest to capitalcityjobs@ccpcs.org. Please include the "High School Spanish Teacher" in the subject line of your email. Visit our website at www.ccpcs.org for additional information about our organization.

About Our School: Capital City was founded in 2000 and now serves 993 students in grades PK-12. In 2012, the entire school relocated to a newly renovated single campus in Ward 4. Capital City has been a model for school reform in the District. The school implements the EL Education model (www.elschools.org). Through this model teachers craft expeditions that incorporate projects, research, fieldwork, and service to support students in meeting rigorous standards. Capital City's program also emphasizes a strong social curriculum, a commitment to diversity, a strong inclusion model and the integration of arts into the curriculum.

Capital City is an equal-opportunity employer. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, marital status, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, disability, or any other protected status. All employment decisions will be made solely on the basis of the individual's qualifications as related to the requirement of the position being filled.