

Title IX Assurance Letter

This letter serves to confirm that Capital City Public Charter School has taken the steps below in accordance with Title IX of the Education Amendments of 1972, 20 U.S.C. § 1681.

Please check all that apply:

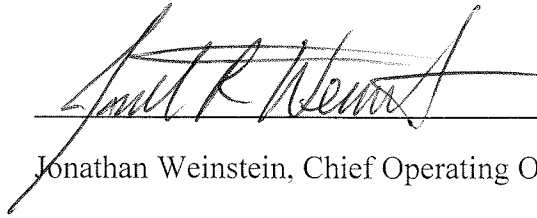

- There is at least one overall coordinator designated at this campus that has the responsibility and capability to oversee all institutional responses to Title IX grievances.
Please provide his/her name(s), title, contact information, and the title of the person to whom he/she reports:
Jonathan R. Weinstein, COO, jweinstein@ccpcs.org, reports to Head of School
- The designated coordinator(s) has received proper training pertaining to Title IX compliance and his/ her role(s) and responsibilities as the Title IX coordinator for this campus.
- This campus has established one or more policies prohibiting discrimination on the basis of both sex and gender identity.
- This campus has established a sexual harassment policy for employees and has provided training to its employees regarding this policy.
- This campus has established a sexual harassment policy for students and has provided training to its employees regarding this policy.
- This campus has a grievance procedure, i.e., a policy or process for addressing Title IX complaints or grievances and this procedure includes clearly written procedures and timelines for addressing complaints or grievances.
- Title IX policies, grievance procedures, and the name(s) of the designated coordinator have been publicized to all students, staff and families in the following forms:
 - Information posted on the school website
 - Printed materials distributed to students
 - Printed materials distributed to staff
 - Printed materials distributed to parents
- This campus runs equitable athletic programs for male and female athletes, including providing equal access to athletic space for games and practices, equitable resources for training and competition, and equal publicity of all athletic events regardless of the team's gender.
 - If not applicable, check here

CAPITALCITY
PUBLIC CHARTER SCHOOL

- This campus has established provisions to accommodate pregnant students either on campus, or by identifying a comparable alternative educational setting. (For Schools with Grades 6-12 Only)
- If not applicable, check here

Signed by

Jonathan Weinstein, Chief Operating Officer