

An award-winning EL Education School in Washington, DC

2019-2020 Position Available: Middle School Drama Teacher

Capital City Public Charter School is looking for a drama teacher for our middle school campus. The drama teacher is responsible for developing and implementing a curriculum for 5th-8th grade students that aligns with national arts standards. The drama teacher will work closely with the visual arts and music teachers (as well as the rest of the staff) to achieve the mission and goals of Capital City. Capital City serves a diverse population and seeks a teaching staff reflective of our student body.

Responsibilities of the Drama Teacher include:

- Planning and teaching weekly drama classes to 5th-8th graders (class sizes: 22-25 students)
- Creating and sharing organized, high quality weekly lesson plans and curriculum documents
- Working with classroom teachers to support learning expeditions and the individual needs of students.
- Meeting and planning regularly with the specials team.
- Communicating with parents through newsletters, narrative report cards and (as needed) meetings.
- Sharing non-classroom responsibilities (such as lunch duty, CREW leadership, organizing student events, planning meetings) with the rest of the staff.

At least two of the following are required: Bachelor's degree and at least one of the following:

- A major in education or field of instruction or equivalent 30 semester hours of credit
- District of Columbia teaching license in field of instruction
- Two years of verifiable teaching experience as a teacher of record
- One year as a support teacher at Capital City and enrollment in a teacher education or certification program.

While the above are the minimum qualifications, Capital City seeks to employ experienced, credentialed teachers. Ideal candidates have a Master's degree and 3+ years of full-time teaching experience. In addition to the above requirements, teachers must meet the requirements of all hires at Capital City including a criminal background check, and a negative TB test.

Compensation and Benefits: Capital City offers a competitive salary commensurate with experience and a comprehensive benefits package

To Apply: Email your resume and letter of interest to Laina Cox at capitalcityjobs@ccpcs.org. Please include the position title "MS Drama Teacher" in the subject line of your email. Visit our website at www.ccpcs.org for additional information about our organization.

About Our School: Capital City was founded in 2000 and now serves 993 students in grades PK-12. In 2012, the entire school relocated to a newly renovated single campus in Ward 4. Capital City has been a model for school reform in the District. The school implements the EL Education model (www.elschools.org). Through this model teachers craft expeditions that incorporate projects, research, fieldwork, and service to support students in meeting rigorous standards. Capital City's program also emphasizes a strong social curriculum, a commitment to diversity, a strong inclusion model and the integration of arts into the curriculum.

Capital City is an equal-opportunity employer. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, marital status, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, disability, or any other protected status. All employment decisions will be made solely on the basis of the individual's qualifications as related to the requirement of the position being filled.
