

An award-winning EL Education School in Washington, DC

High School Biology Summer School Teacher

Capital City is looking for a dedicated and talented High School Biology Summer School Teacher.

This is a 5-week summer position, June 25-July 25 with 2 -planning days allocated and July 4th off. This position is exempt and therefore not eligible for overtime pay under the provisions of the Fair Labor Standards Act.

The many and varied responsibilities of summer high school teachers at Capital City include:

- Planning/teaching daily classes for 15-25 students taught in two time blocks- 9-11:45am and 12:15-3:00pm.
- Utilizing a workshop model to differentiate instruction and promote student engagement
- Regularly assessing student progress and using data to plan for instruction
- Meeting and planning at least twice with the summer school principal
- Supporting students with completing projects and meeting passage requirements of course
- Completing progress reports mid-way and at the end of the summer

Qualifications: At least two of the following are required: Bachelor's degree in education or field of instruction, 2+ years of full-time teaching experience, standard teaching certification. Secondary teachers must also have an undergraduate or graduate major in their field of instruction OR have passed the required Praxis II exam for their discipline. Additionally, candidates should have: a commitment to meeting the needs of a diverse population, experience working in urban environments, strong knowledge of pedagogy and experience teaching in a constructivist way, proven ability to work as a member of a team, strong leadership capabilities, and a commitment to their own learning.

Compensation and Benefits: Capital City offers a competitive salary commensurate with experience and a comprehensive benefits package

To Apply: Email your resume and letter of interest to Belicia Reaves, High School Principal, to capitalcityjobs@ccpcs.org. Please include the position title " High School Biology Summer School Teacher" in the subject line of your email. Visit our website at www.ccpcs.org for additional information about our organization.

About Our School: Capital City was founded in 2000 and now serves 983 students in grades PK-12. In 2012, the entire school relocated to a newly renovated single campus in Ward 4. Capital City has been a model for school reform in the District. The school implements the EL Education model (www.elschools.org). Through this model teachers craft expeditions that incorporate projects, research, fieldwork, and service to support students in meeting rigorous standards. Capital City's program also emphasizes a strong social curriculum, a commitment to diversity, a strong inclusion model and the integration of arts into the curriculum.

Capital City is an equal-opportunity employer. We do not discriminate on the basis of race, color, national origin, marital status, religion, sex, age, sexual orientation, disability, or any other protected status. All employment decisions will be made solely on the basis of the individual's qualifications as related to the requirement of the position being filled.